

ASPC/AMHR Club of North Texas

- ❖ The ASPC/AMHR Club of N. Texas was formed in 1994 in the Dallas/Ft Worth Metroplex, for our members to enjoy and promote their Shetland Ponies & Miniatures.
- ❖ Since then, we have helped develop the show circuit for the State of Texas by establishing two yearly shows. The third weekend in April (the Daffodil Dandy) and the last weekend in October (the Halloween Spooktacular). Our shows are held at the Somerville County Expo Center in Glen Rose, Texas.
- ❖ As club members we have hosted the Area 5 National Show, and host for the 2000 National Convention held in Dallas, Texas, along with hosting a number of seminars and play days. We strive to promote a happy, healthy environment for people to enjoy their Shetlands & Miniatures. We stress camaraderie and willingness to aid newcomers in learning how to enjoy their animals.
- ❖ Youth: The ASPC/AMHR Club of N. Texas developed the Area 5 High Point Youth/Horse Program. We include a variety of youth classes in every show and strive to develop good sportsmanship in our youth.
- ❖ Amateurs: ASPC/AMHR/ASPC Triple A Amateur Advantage Program sponsored by the ASPC/AMHR Registry. This program is designed with the amateur in mind. You must hold a current amateur card in order to participate in any amateur classes. Contact the Registry for an Amateur packet.
